

Earn Egan Safety Bucks

by taking an Online Safety Course

We have 10 new on-line courses available. Each class is estimated to take between 30-40 minutes. Earn a Safety Buck valued between $10 – 25 for taking a class.

The following classes are available:

• Fall Protection	• Confined Space Entry Procedures
• Electrical Safety	• Trenching and Excavations
• Hazard Communications	• Lockout/tagout
• Personal Protective Equipment	• Stairway and Ladders
• Scaffold Safety	• Hand and Power Tools

Employees can register for a course directly by going to the Egan website, www.eganco.com, then select Safety, then Online Safety Classes.

Your User Name is Egan followed by your employee number (ex. Egan#####) and Password is Safety. See below.

You can register for one class at time and after you have passed that course you can register for another until you have completed all 10 courses. We will be adding an NFPA 70E course in the near future.

- Open your web browser and type in <http://www.eganco.com>; go to Safety/Safety Online Classes. This will bring you to the Safety Site.
- From the Login Menu, click the Returning Student option.
- Enter your User Name and Password in the textboxes and click the Login button.
- Select the course from the drop-down box. If you were enrolled in a training program, select the program and then proceed to step 5 to select an individual class.
- Select a class from the drop-down list and click continue.

- Select "Introduction" to begin viewing the lesson.
- View the lesson and follow the navigations on each screen.
- Complete the Test by clicking the "Test" button in the student menu to get credit for completing the class.
